GOCOA Greek School Registration Regulations

The Greek School Board & Parish Council has approved school rules to help create a safe learning environment for our children. Our aim is to create awareness and teach children about safety, care, respect for teachers and property, positive health habits, and consideration for others. Each student and parent, should read this form and have a clear understanding of its contents.

RULES OF BEHAVIOR

- All students must stay in the building during school hours.
- NO running in the halls, down the stairs or in the community center
- Respect for property: school, teachers and other students.
- Use polite, respectable language and behavior towards teachers, students, parents, & supervisors.
- Violence is not permitted; this includes threats, vandalism, bullying and inappropriate body language.
- Please be on time to school and prepared to follow class instructions and to do work.
- Students must follow teacher's and principal's classroom rules.
- NO electronic devices during class time.
- No food upstairs. Only small snacks supervised by the teacher. Water only is permitted.
- Please use front doors only when exiting and entering a building.
- No non-student is allowed upstairs without a parent.
- No parent is allowed to "sit" in a classroom with their child. If a child is under distress and needs their parent, the child will be allowed to leave the classroom.
- Parents are not allowed to speak with a teacher during instruction time. Please seek the teacher out before or after school.
